COLOGNE, March 1.

FOR ſix Months paſt the Public News has often made mention of great ſubterraneous diſcoveries made 6 miles from Naples, on the ſide of Mount Veſuvius, in the Plain of Portici. The different Relations, that have appeared on this Subject, have all their Merit; but the firſt being certainly a little romantic, and the latter very dry, we did not much regard them. At laſt we have a Letter without either of theſe Faults, and which has moreover the advantage to be ſign'd by the firſt Prelate of the Kingdom of the Two Sicilies. The following is an exact Copy;

'We perſuaded ourſelves at firſt, that there was only a Theatre in the Place that had been dug into; viz. that Theatre, which according to Hiſtorians, was buried by an earthquake in the Reign of the Emperor Titus. But for ſome time paſt the ruins of other Edifices have been found, which prove the diſcovery not to conſiſt of a Theatre only, but of an entire City, which has been ſwallowed up by the Torrents of Fire, and Brimſtone vomited forth by Mount Veſuvius. This City, without diſpute, was the ancient Herculaneum, which Antonius in his Itinerary, places at ſix Miles diſtance from our Capital, anſwering to two French leagues; which is properly the diſtance at preſent obſerved. We are moreover convinced of it by the Inſcriptions, that have been dug up in the Place itſelf, in which we find Herculanenſes, the Name of the Inhabitants of the ſwallowed up City.

'Twould be too long to give an exact Detail of all the curious Pieces that have been taken out of the ground here: We will only ſpeak of them therefore in general. They conſiſt of Pictures in Freſco, great and ſmall, all excellent, which have been brought out with the Walls on which they were painted; many Columns and Statues; various ſorts of Furniture; and an Infinity of other curioſities. Two Coloſſal Statues, in a fitting Poſture, are in the utmoſt Perfection. There is a Statue of Nero naked, with the Thunder in his Hand. A great many meaſures of Liquids have been collected, which will be of prodigious uſe in the Explanation of ancient Writers. There is a Book of four or ſix Leaves of Copper. Bottles of Chryſtal have alſo been found, full of a thick black Matter, which is thought to be the Balm of Egypt, with which the ancients embalmed the dead. Even a Pye has been diſcover'd in the Oven, as appeared by the Figure, tho' the whole fell into Aſhes when touched.

'We have in the Architrave of the Theatre, the Name both of him that cauſed it to be built, and of the Architect who built it: For the following Words appear in large Capitals, THEATRUM ORCHESTRANI DE SUO—L. RUFUS, L. FILIUS; and a little after, in ſmaller Letters, UARRIUS P. J. ARCHITECT. But the Maſter-piece of all theſe Antiquities is an Equeſtrian Statue of Marble, wrought with the utmoſt Delicacy, and almoſt exceeding that of Antonius at Rome.

'The diſcovery of this inexhauſtible Fund of all ſorts was made by mere chance, about 50 Years ago, in digging for the Foundation of a Palace that was then going to be built.

'The king has procur'd a very able Man from Rome, who is to engrave the moſt remarkable pieces that are already, or may be found: By this means they will be given to the Public, and Foreigners will have an Opportunity of ſeeing what we diſcover.'

Turin, March 30. The court has received accounts by two expreſſes, of an Attempt made upon the town of Savona, by a body of French troops ſent from Genoa, but the governor made ſuch diſpoſitions as obliged the enemy to retire, after ſeveral endeavours to force the advanced poſts. Beſides the body tranſported by ſea in 200 row-boats, there was another which came by land to ſecure the paſſes and the upper part of the mountains. This court is extremely pleaſed with the aſſiſtance vice admiral Byng gave in this affair, who commanded the enemy in their poſts.

Milan, March 22. A Day or two ago a courier arrived here from the Imperial miniſter at Turin, who brought count Brown a copy of the convention concluded between the courts of Vienna and Turin, for the ſending troops againſt the iſland of Corſica; ſince which, this general has ſent diſpatches to admiral Byng and count Neuhaus, commander of her imperial troops in the Weſtern Riviera.

Genoa, March 25. Such diſpoſitions are making, by order of the duke of Richlieu, as ſeem to indicate an approaching expedition. That general ſet out laſt wedneſday, with a great number of officers, on board many armed Felaccas, in order to viſit the poſts along the coaſt, and give orders for their ſafety. Yeſterday we heard that his excellency was arrived at Seſtridi Levante.

LONDON, April 2.

The French Queen has lately loſt her Confeſſor, who was a Poliſh Abbot, and 'tis expected ſhe will replace him by another of the ſame Nation, of which ſhe is a Native.

Yeſterday ſeveral pieces of ſkulls, with bones, part of Mr. Eldridge's family, that were burnt at the late Fire in Exchange-Alley, were found among the ruins of the ſaid houſe.

'Tis ſaid, that laſt wedneſday, in clearing the rubbiſh and ruins of the late dreadful fire in Cornhil, a woman was found in a vault, unhurt by the flames, but almoſt ſtarved to death.

On the late dreadful Fire.

How dreadful! in the Calm, the Midnight Hour,
When peaceful Sleep exerts his ſoothing Pow'r,
To ſtart from Slumber, with th' affrighting Sound
Of burſting Flames, which rage our Dwellings round!
Alike, but ſtronger far, will be th' Amaze,
When Nature ſinks in the laſt ſun'ral Blaze;
When ev'ry ſtarting Sphere ſhall flaming fall,
And final Ruin whelm this earthly Ball.
Since all the Treaſures we ſo fondly boaſt,
And Life itſelf, (we Mortals value moſt)
By ſo unſure a Tenure we enjoy,
Let more ſubſtantial Bliſs our Hopes employ;
A Wealth! no Fires can waſte, no Storms can blaſt,
Which Time, and Fate, and Nature, ſhall out-laſt.

April 14. Yeſterday about Noon, capt. Dawſon and capt. Laverick, of the Regiment of Old Buffs, fought a Duel in the Fields near Montague-Houſe; capt. Dawſon received ſeveral Wounds and died on the Spot; capt. Laverick was carried to the White Hart in Totten-ham Court-Road, but 'tis ſaid his Wounds are alſo mortal. Some Perſons who were preſent when theſe Gentlemen quarrell'd, follow'd them, but came too late to prevent their unhappy Fate, although they were in ſight when they drew.

We likewiſe hear, that a Duel was lately fought between two Servants in the County of Limerick, in Ireland; inſtead of Swords and Piſtols, the Combatants were armed with Bottles of Brandy; and, at the Time and Place appointed, actually met to decide their Difference at theſe Weapons: The Action ſoon began warm, and was vigorouſly maintained on both Sides, till one of our Heroes was unfortunately overthrown; the other, elated with his Victory, took up another Glaſs, drank it off to the Memory of his defeated Antagoniſt, and fell down over him. In ſhort, the two Heroes died, and were buried together.

Among other Teſtimonies of Joy, given by the Inhabitants of the United Provinces, on the Birth of the Count de Buren, a Goldſmith at Rotterdam has cauſed a Medal to be ſtruck, with the Heads of the Prince and Princeſs of Orange on one Side, and on the other the Genius of the Republic is repreſented ſitting in State, with her Cap full of Oranges, and a Parcel of withered Flowers under her Feet, with a Diſtich, in Dutch Verſe, to this Purpoſe:

The Orange clears the Head and charms the Eye,
Theſe—but the faded Lilies—[illegible]

BOSTON, June 16.

In the House of Representatives, June 14. 1748.

Mr. Speaker having communicated to the House a printed Sheet of the Votes of the House of Commons, which he received from London, by the Way of Hull, containing the following Resolves, viz.

MR. Pane (according to Order) reported from the Committee of the whole House, to whom it was referred to consider further of the Supply granted to His Majesty, the Resolutions which the Committee had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Table; where the same were read, and agreed to by the House, and are as followeth, viz.

Resolved, That it is just and reasonable that the several Provinces and Colonies of Massachusetts Bay, New-Hampshire, Connecticut and Rhode-Island, be reimbursed the Expences they have been at, in taking, and securing to the Crown of Great-Britain, the Island of Cape Breton, and its Dependencies.

Resolved, That a Sum, not exceeding One hundred eighty three thousand six hundred forty nine pounds two shillings and seven pence half penny, be granted to his Majesty, for reimbursing to the Province of the Massachusetts Bay their Expences in the said Expedition.

Resolved, That a Sum, not exceeding Sixteen thousand three hundred fifty five pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, be granted to his Majesty, for reimbursing to the Province of New-Hampshire their Expences in the said Expedition.

Resolved, That a Sum, not exceeding Twenty eight thousand eight hundred sixty three pounds nineteen shillings and one penny, be granted to his Majesty, for reimbursing to the Colony of Connecticut their Expences in the said Expedition.

Resolved, That a Sum, not exceeding Six thousand three hundred thirty two pounds twelve shillings and ten pence, be granted to his Majesty, for reimbursing to the Colony of Rhode-Island their Expences in the said Expedition.

Resolved, That a Sum, not exceeding Five hundred forty seven pounds fifteen shillings, be granted to his Majesty, to be allowed to James Gibson, Esquire, for his Services and Expences in the said Expedition."

Read and Ordered, That Thomas Foster, Esq; go up to the honourable Board, and lay the said printed Sheet before them.

Which was done by him accordingly.

Extract from the Minutes of the House of Representatives, per Roland Cotton, Cl. Dom. Rep.

By Capt. Leman, who arrived here on Wednesday last, in 14 Days from St. Johns in Newfoundland, we have advice, That on the 25th of May last, a Fire broke out there near the Harbour, which prov'd of terrible Consequence, most of the Houses, Stores, Merchandize, Fishing Flakes, Wharves, &c. being destroyed thereby. The Damage sustained by the Sufferers 'tis tho't will amount to 70 or 80,000 l. Sterling.—— 'Tis said 'twas occasioned by a Candle carelessly left by a drunken Fisherman.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23.

Extract of a Letter from St. John's, Antigua, May 26.

"About a Fortnight ago arrived here three Prizes, taken by the Squadron under the command of Admiral Osbourne, which has been cruising off of Martineco for some Time, in order to have met with their Indiamen, but have missed them; however, they kept so good a look out, that hardly a Vessel could get in, which very much distressed them, as they had neither Bread nor Flour on the Island. Yesterday we had an Account from St. Kitts of thirteen Prizes being carried in there, all homeward bound from the Cape, except one; five of which were taken by captain Frankland, in his Majesty's ship Dragon, two by capt. Tyrrel, in another of the King's ships; two by capt. Emey, and one by capt. Strawbridge, both of Rhode Island; who the other three were taken by is unknown.

Extract of another Letter from the same Place, June 4.

"Yesterday arrived here a Flag of Truce from Martineco with 70 Prisoners. They are in great want of Provisions there, tho' they have 20 or 30 Privateers out. The Prisoners mention capt. Wilson, bound to Barbadoes from Belfast, laden with Beef and Butter, being carried in there, which was a most acceptable Prize to them; also a Vessel from New-York to St. Kitts, and a great many more Northward Men."

Friday last arrived here capt. Thomas Jenkins, in the sloop Industry, from Boston; in his Passage, on the 25th Instant about 5 Miles from Cape May, he was taken by a Spanish privateer sloop from the Havannah, of 6 carriage guns, and about 10 Swivels, and Forty or Fifty Men commanded by Don Joseph Hannotcha. He was plundered of every Thing he had that was valuable, and then had his Vessel returned him.

The same Night came to Town, capt. William Clymer Jun. bound in here in a sloop from Charles-Town, South Carolina; but was chased in near Cape May by a sloop (probably the one that took capt. Jenkins) on Wednesday last, upon which he quitted his Vessel, and went ashore with his Hands in the Boat.

Sunday last came here one of the Hands of another Vessel bound hither from South Carolina, but was run ashore on Cape Hatteras in North-Carolina, by a Spanish privateer; by him we learn, that his Majesty's ship Rye has taken and sent into Charles-Town, two of the Enemies privateers; he also informs us, that as he came thro' Virginia, he heard that the Hector Man of War was to sail directly for our Capes.

Last Night arrived here capt. Frith, from Antigua, who advises, that he saw the Lee Man of War, capt. Norbury, at our Capes; that the privateer Brigt. formerly mentioned to be taken by him, was in company, and a privateer sloop he had taken on our Coast, not unlikely to be the one that took capt. Jenkins, and drove capt. Clymer ashore.

NEW-YORK, June 27.

Thursday last arrived here from a Cruize of near Ten Months, the Privateer ship Antilope, capt. Amory, comma. &c. of this Port, with three French prizes, viz. a Snow, a Brig, and a Scooner: The scooner was taken the 16th of April last, about 20 Leagues to the Leward of Martineco, from whence she was bound for Canada, and is laden with Rum, Molasses, and some Salt; she is called the Brunette, Monsr. Dufault, commander, and is about 120 Tons. The next day they took the Brig, bound also from Martineco for Old France, laden with Sugar, Coffee, and Cotton; She is called the Providence, Monsr. Galliot, commander, is about 100 Tons, and had 9 Men on board. The Snow was taken the 7th of May, bound from Martineco for Old France also, laden with Sugar, Coffee, and Cotton: and is called the Pieta, Monsr. Durand, commander, of about 160 Tons, had 6 Guns and 12 men. The Antilope has taken seven prizes this cruize, viz. two ships, 3 Snows, 2 Brigs, and a Schooner, besides retaking an English Sloop in company with another Privateer: Two of the Snows were sent into St. Kitts, and sold there, the rest sent or brought in here. In the whole 'tis like to turn out a good Cruize.

The same Vessel brings a report, that the English men of war who continue to cruize off and block up Martineco, have lately fell in with a French Fleet of Merchantmen from Old France, under convoy of two men of war of the Line and a Frigate of 40 Guns, and that they had taken the two men of war, and most of the Merchantmen, whilst some few, with the Frigate escaped.—They add, that Numbers of French Prizes were daily sent into St. Kitts.

The same day came in here, the ship Betty, of Glasgow, capt. Aiking late commander, bound from the Isle of May for Virginia, which was taken the 4th of this Instant in Lat. 36. by a Spanish Privateer sloop of 12 carriage guns and 140 men, belonging to the Havanna, who order'd the captain on board the Privateer, and sent 13 Spaniards on board the ship: The night following they met with a hard Gale of Wind, which carried away their Main-Mast, and separated them from the Privateer; and there being no Artist among the 13 Spaniards, the English men left on board, being only four in Number, stood to the Northward with the Vessel, and by good Providence happily brought her with the Spaniards safe in here.

By a Vessel arrived here on Friday last from Coracoa, we have advice, that the Brig Mercury, Thomas Jones commander, a fine Burmudian, bound from this Port for Coracoa, ran ashore on Little Coracoa, the 17th of last Month, whereby the Vessel was entirely lost, but the Men and part of the Cargo saved.

By capt. Kip, arrived here last Week from Georgia, we have advice, that a Spanish privateer of 4 Carriage Guns and 45 Men, from St. Augustine, was taken off that Coast the 2d of May last, by the Heron Privateer, capt. Seymour, of Georgia, and carried in there.

Tuesday last arrived here the Privateer sloop Flying-Fish, of this Port, Capt. Haddon, Commander, from Providence; of whom we have an Account, That he had been carried in there after a very unprecedented Manner, by a Privateer belonging to the Governor of that Place, and commanded by Capt. Green:—Capt. Haddon being out on a Cruize, took some Effects out of a Wreck of a Providence Privateer which he had been cruising in Consort with, and had been cut away in the Bay of Lengane; which Capt. Green getting Intelligence of, and meeting Capt. Haddon at Sea, he demanded those Effects of him; but Capt. Haddon refused to deliver them, unless he would shew sufficient Authority for his Demand, and give him Security for the Salvage; whereupon Green immediately pour'd a whole Broadside into him, which kill'd him four four Men out right, shot a Log as a Fish, and wounded one of them: On their Arrival at Providence, Capt. Green underwent a sham criminal Process, was committed to Prison, and reprimanded, which was almost all the Satisfaction that Capt. Haddon got; but we hear he intends to publish a particular Translation of the Affair, as soon as it has been laid before proper Authority.

Postscript of a Letter from Philadelphia.

I have the Pleasure to acquaint you, that the Spanish privateer commanded by Don Joseph Hannoteau, who took Capt. Jenkins, (as mentioned in the Philadelphia Article of the 23d Instant,) is taken by a Brigt. Tender to the Loo Man of War. The News is just arrived from the Capes, and may be depended on.

Yours,

WILLIAMSBURG, June 16.

We have a certain account that the Ship Rose was taken, by a small Spanish Privateer near the Capes; and is a valuable Prize to the Enemy, having on board said above 30,000 l. worth of dry Goods in her. We are also inform'd, that a Vessel belonging to Mr. Meade and Mr. Coupland, bound to the West-Indies, and a Vessel loaded by Mr. Coupland with Tar, &c. for Whitehaven, were taken a few Days since, near the Capes. The privateer gave a boat to 14 or 15 of the Rose's People, to carry them ashore; but they were all drowned except one, who happily escap'd, and gives the melancholy Account. 'Tis pity the Rose had not kept close to her Convoy, and thereby prevented her being taken. The Masters of the Ships in this Fleet, all say, that no Captain of a Convoy Ship of War, ever took more care of his Convoy, than Capt. Masterman, of the Hector, did of this Fleet; and therefore deserves the Thanks and Esteem of all the Gentlemen in the Country.

On the 14th Instant a Schooner, capt. Ingram, belonging to Mr. Durham Hall, of Norfolk, was taken by a Brigt. Privateer, of 14 carriage guns, near Point Comfort, and took out of her 440 l. in Cash, and 4 Negroes, stripp'd the Schooner of her Sails, Rigging, and every thing they could carry off. The Privateer also took in sight of capt. Ingram, the Snow Pearl, capt. Jefford, just arriv'd from Glasgow, for Rappahannock, with Sale Goods; and there is an account that they took, the Night before, another Snow and a Sloop, back of the Horse-Shoe, where 'tis said she now is, and but badly mann'd. 'Tis said this Brigt. ran up the River Delaware as high as New-castle, and took 19 Sail of Vessels. There has been another Privateer up this Bay several Days, and has done considerable damage, by taking and rifling several small Vessels; but we don't hear where she is now. 'Tis also certain, that there are several Privateers cruising between the Capes of Delaware and Chesapeak, and take almost every thing they see. The Loo man of War, and her Prize Tender, well mann'd, have been several Days at Sea on a cruise; the Hector is to sail this Day or To-morrow on a Cruise; and we hear our Government are about to fit out a Vessel well arm'd and mann'd, forthwith: So that it's hop'd the Coast will soon be scour'd of these Pests of Trade, that swarm to a greater Degree than has ever been known in these Parts.

We hear that capt. Masterman of the Hector man of war has offer'd his Assistance in manning a Vessel for the Country's Service.

We hear the Governor and Council have this Day been pleas'd to order, That a Vessel be forthwith fitted out against the Privateers.

June 23. Last Tuesday about 150 Spanish Prisoners that were taken by the Loo man of war, and also the Genoese, taken by capt. Sieres, were put on board the Mermaid, at York, which is hir'd as a Cartel Ship, to take them to Havanna, and exchange them for English Prisoners.

We have advice, that the Privateers still infest our Coast and Bay: One of them took a ship off the Capes, and afterwards another took her in the Bay; but she being empty, they both let her go; and a few Days since, they took a large ship, commanded by capt. M'Cun, from Scotland, with a considerable Cargo. We expect to hear of more captures.——The men of war are both out.

ANNAPOLIS, July 6.

Last Saturday Henry Wildon, one of the Persons concerned in robbing Mr. Sands's Store (as formerly mentioned) was brought to Town from Lancaster Goal, and committed to our Prison.

Last Night Mr. Reynold's Store, in this City, was broke open, and several Things taken out, in particular some Rum and Sugar; the Villains got in by boring a Hole against the Bolt with an Augur.

We have several Robberies, being committed of late in different Parts of the Country, in the Day Time.

ROBERT MORRIS.

RAN-away from the Subscriber, living at Elk Ridge, in Anne-Arundel County, a Convict Servant Man, named Samuel Jones; he is a little thin Fellow, with a great Chew of Tobacco in his Mouth. Had on when he went away, a white Flannel Jacket, an old pair of Leather Breeches, and a pair of light grey Kersey Breeches, an old pair of black Stockings, a pair of English Shoes with a Patch on one of them, and a Felt Hat; he is about 35 Years of Age, and his Knees knock together as he walks.

It is supposed he will change his Name, and forge a Pass.

Whoever secures the said Run-away, so that his Master may have him again, shall have Twenty Shillings, besides what the Law allows, paid by JOHN BAYLIS.

ALL Persons indebted to the Estate of Col. Adam Muir, deceased, are desired to make speedy Payment, to prevent Trouble: And those who have any Demands on the said Estate, are desired to bring their Accounts that they may be adjusted, by THOMAS MUIR, Executor.

THE Ship Winchester, lying in Severn River, Thomas Cornish Commander, carrying eighteen Guns, and forty Men, takes in Tobacco consigned to Mr. John Hanbury, Merchant in London, at Fourteen Pounds Sterling per Ton. The said Master will attend on board the said Ship every Friday, where he shall be glad of the Company of his Friends.

ABOUT the Year 1727, or 1728, one Francis Main, who was then a well-set Lad, about 14 Years of Age, had dark-brown Hair, and a Scar over one of his Eye-brows, came from London into this Province, as a Servant, in the Ship Grove, Capt. Babb, who loaded in Bush River.

Now if the said Francis Main be living, and will apply to Jonas Green, Printer, in Annapolis, he will hear of something greatly to his Advantage: And if he is indebted to any Person in this Province, he will hear of a Friend who will extricate him from any Difficulties of that Kind, let his Debt be what they will.

ANNAPOLIS: Printed by JONAS GREEN, Post-Master, at his Printing-Office in Charles-Street; where Advertisements are taken in, and all Persons may be supplied with this Paper.
